Disciplined, systems-oriented Route-to-Market Analyst who leads a team of 3 across 3 entities in West Java. Known for turning inconsistent field processes into standardized, measurable frameworks, including a Call Frequency Management system across 32 depots and the removal of 12,000+ suspicious outlets through data-driven anomaly detection. I combine a data science foundation with hands-on field and stakeholder experience, so analysis becomes action that depots actually adopt. Guided by “Quam plurimi et quam aptissimi”, I aim to keep learning and make a real, lasting impact.
